London, July 3.—The action of the House of Commons on Gladstone's resolution permitting Bradlaugh to affirm has given satisfaction to the supporters of the Government.

The telegraph wire east of Denver is down—consequently the short report.—Ed.

—We are glad to note that J. W. Love is able to be out again.

—Bell & Cartan's new grocery store is well filled with almost everything.

—The name of F. O. Kihlberg is mentioned in connection with the office of the Sheriff.

—Miss Annie Wood returned yesterday from a week's visit at the springs, much improved in health.

—The east bound passenger came yesterday with a large bloomingactus setting on the engine under the headlight.

—Crawford & Co's store, has for several days been decorated with flags. Almost any sized flag can be seen there.

—Quite a good sized party came in on the train from the west yesterday. They stopped off at this place and will spend some days visiting the springs.

—The present lien law in this Territory is the most comprehensive law that respect in the United States. It fully protects the mechanic and laborer.

—Prof. Robertson showed us yesterday a sack full of good looking ore brought up from new discoveries near Red River. Mineral is being found on all sides.

—Monte Verde seems to have got into trouble with somebody a night or so since; and using a knife a little too freely, she now finds that the way of the transgressor is not easy.

—The mines of the Sandia and Manzano mining districts are to hold a meeting at Albuquerque for the purpose of taking measures, looking to the development of the mines in these districts.

—The old Baca building is being plastered and penciled and generally refitted. A new veranda is also being built. When finished, this building will be one of the largest and best in the city.

—The free lunch at Bramm's last night was taken in by a large number of our fellow citizens. Bramm was pleasant and Burton in his most jovial mood. The lunch was splendid and highly appreciated by the hungry mortals who gathered around the festive board.

—Messrs. Rupe & Castle, dealers in lumber on the east side report rapid sales of a class of building material for which there was but little demand last summer. This indicates that people are making permanent improvements and look to the adornment as well as the necessity of a home.

—Mr. August Schmidt of Frasley's meat market on the north side does not propose to be outdone and with the late purchase of fat cattle from Fred Hooper, and with fat sheep, he can supply the best beef and mutton which the market affords. Go and examine his meat and you will conclude that all the good beef is not out of the country yet.

DRESS-MAKING SHOP at the house of Margarito Romero, on Springs road north of plaza; and as she is an old expert of Vegas, she is ready to make CUT, FIT AND MAKE DRESSES for her old friends and new ones. Satisfaction guaranteed, no charges.

WOOL-GROWERS can rely upon a remedy from contagious disease in their flock after use of Ladd's Tobacco Sheep Dip. Guaranteed an immediate cure for scab and prevention of infection by that terror to stockmasters. Guaranteed to more than repay cost of application by increased growth of wool. Guaranteed to improve the texture of the fleece instead of injury to it as is the result of the use of other compounds. Guaranteed to destroy vermin on the animal and prevent return. Guaranteed to be the most effective, cheap and safe remedy ever offered to American Wool-growers. No stockmaster should be without it. I have the most undoubted testimonials corroborative of above. Send for circular and address orders to W. M. LADD, 362-2m 21 N. Main St., St. Louis, Mo.
